Medical Release

In case of accident or illness, I authorize the calling of medical services. I will not hold the YMCA or the group leaders responsible. I can be contacted at one of the following numbers: _____ or _____. In the event that emergency medical attention is deemed necessary, I give the Frisco Family YMCA permission to provide first aid and/or transport to the nearest emergency medical facility. I also give permission for necessary emergency treatment by a physician and/or hospital/clinic. By my signature and my free will, I do hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Frisco Family YMCA from any and all claims and demands, cost or expense arising out of any injury to me or any party I am responsible for, and that I am liable for all such cost incurred.

Alcohol Free Policy

The Frisco Family YMCA Adventure Guides and Princesses program is dedicated to building strong family values and developing a foundation for positive, lifelong relationships between parent and child. The consumption or presence of alcoholic beverages at program-sponsored events does not foster this vision and is strictly prohibited. Violation of this policy will result in immediate expulsion from the sponsored event including camp weekends and could result in the offender's termination in the Adventure Guide and Princess Program. Policy enforcement is at the will of the program's Board of Directors and/or the Executive Director or Program Director of the Frisco Family YMCA.

Communicating with Parents/Sponsors

The dissemination of program related information is key to the success of the Adventure Guides and Princesses Program. Several methods are used. 1) Information is channeled to camp leaders at monthly Base Camp Meetings where upcoming events, activities and issues are discussed. Group leaders pass along this information to all at monthly camp meetings. 2) The program maintains up to date information on upcoming events and camp standings at our web site. 3) Base Camp Officers will send information periodically to parents and/or sponsors directly through e-mail. It is important that your e-mail address on the FriscoFamilyYMCA.com web site reflect your most recent address to insure uninterrupted communication.
